

Position:

Line Cook

Type:

Part-time

We are currently accepting applications for the line cook position. This role is great for individuals who have a passion for cooking and thrive in a team environment. Join our professional team where your skills are appreciated and supported in a beautiful state of the art facility. A supportive work environment with friendly co-workers and strong team culture. Employees receive a meal included for each shift and on site rapid Covid testing as needed. Benefits include competitive pay and paid vacation time you start earning immediately. Take the first step to a more rewarding career.

Prairie Ridge of Galena proudly serves restaurant-style, quality meals to our residents in our dining room or offers tray service to apartments when requested. This employee is expected to provide the following:

- Assisting the Executive Chef with daily culinary and administrative tasks as well as those assigned by management staff
- Adherence to recipes and quality standards including feature/specials or special events
- Ability to work well with other chefs/cooks and serving staff to ensure high degree of resident satisfaction at the community
- Knowledgeable about the food menu and can answer questions
- Communicates orders with the kitchen staff
- Helps with dishes and cleaning
- Practices proper kitchen sanitation, handwashing, and safety standards
- Attends monthly meetings
- Other duties assigned

Benefits can include:

- 401(k)
- Flexible schedule
- Paid time off
- Referral program

Schedule:

- 1st shift (6a-2p)
- Holidays (rotating)
- Weekends

Company Culture:

- Detail-oriented -- quality and precision-focused
- People-oriented -- supportive and fairness-focused
- Team-oriented -- cooperative and collaborative